Top stories in this newsletter

NOW OPEN:
Faculty-Led Program Applications for Summer 2016

Scholarship Watch:
The IVMA Scholarship Application is Due on Oct 30th!

IVSA Workshop Info:
The "Funding Your International Experience" Workshop Information is available below

Deadline:
International Off-Campus Blocks for 3rd years (Oct 14th)

SUMMER APPLICATIONS NOW OPEN!!!

Faculty-Led programs are headed by PVM faculty throughout the country or countries specified below. These programs are usually offered throughout the summer, and last for 2-3 weeks. Faculty members for these programs have mapped out the day to day activities for students. Information on each program attached. More details to come!

Veterinary Technology in Guatemala:
Wildlife Rehabilitation
Cause Link: https://prezi.com/suzuiv0tvlkl/2016-summer-study-abroad-program-veterinary-technology-in-guatemala/

DVM Brazil:
Exotic/Wildlife Veterinary Medicine/International Perspectives in Veterinary Medicine

DVM U.K.:
Food Animal Production Medicine

DVM China:
Clinical Rotation with short-term internship in Panda Medicine

Deadlines for Summer Applications are on November 12th for Veterinary Technology and December 14th for DVM Students

Copy the link below to fill out your application:
https://purdue.qualtrics.com/SE/?SID=SV_0kSGCLCDOmx9Sex

Scholarship Watch:
The Indiana Veterinary Medical Association (IVMA) and Indiana Animal Health Foundation (IAHF) have established a scholarship fund for students at Purdue University. The IVMA will award 5 - $1000 scholarships and the IAHF will award 2 - $1000 scholarships.

The deadline for this scholarship is Friday, October 30, 2015.

You must be:
Enrolled as a full-time vet student (1st-4th year)
Cumulative GPA of 2.5 or higher
Active SCAVMA member
Demonstrate sincere interest in animal well-being, the human-animal bond, community service or involvement in SCAVMA leadership

Copy the link below to apply:
http://www.invma.org/?page=IVMAScholarshipapp

IVSA Workshop Info:
Thanks to all those who attended the “Funding Your International Experience Workshop” hosted by IVSA and the Office of International Programs on Oct. 7th!

We hope the information was helpful! I know we covered a lot of information, so we are attaching the Prezi presentation below for review.

Copy the link below to access the presentation:
https://prezi.com/2tdlu1apairz/funding-your-international-experience/

Copy the link below to access information on more scholarships:
http://www.vet.purdue.edu/ip/funding.php

Off-Campus Blocks/ Externships for 3rd Year DVM

If you are a 3rd year DVM student looking to complete an International off-campus block experience or externship, please setup an appointment with the Office of International Programs as soon as possible for assistance in finding a program and mentor. The deadline to turn in your off-campus block proposal is October 14th.

To set up an appointment with the IP Office, please copy the link below:
https://purdue.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_c1CH02wB8s1YJD