

PURDUE UNIVERSITY

CENTER FOR ANIMAL WELFARE SCIENCE

2ND ANNUAL
CAWS SYMPOSIUM

MAY 18, 2016

PURDUE UNIVERSITY
WEST LAFAYETTE, IN

Program

5 Continuing Education (CE) units available

Purdue Stewart Center Room 302 / 306

128 Memorial Mall West Lafayette, IN

Current Welfare Challenges and Strategies to Address Them

7:30 AM – Breakfast and Registration

8:15 AM – Welcome:

Willie Reed, Dean, College of Veterinary Medicine;
Jay Akridge, Glen W. Sample Dean of Agriculture;
Candace Croney, Ph.D., Director, Center for Animal Welfare Science

8:30 AM – Ed Pajor, Ph.D., University of Calgary

Keynote Address:
Improving Animal Welfare: Future Drivers

9:15 AM – Letty Medina, DVM, AbbVie

Laboratory Animal Welfare: Challenges, Priorities and the Need for More Research

10:00 AM – Break

10:15 AM – Stephanie Cottee, Ph.D., Cargill

Animal Welfare—Corporate Challenges and Global Perspectives

10:45 AM – Andrew Rowan, Ph.D., Humane Society
International / Tufts University

Companion Animal Welfare — Challenges and Global Perspectives

11:15 AM – Global/Industry Animal Welfare Panel
(Pajor, Medina, Cottee, Rowan)

11:45 AM – Lunch,

Graduate Student Posters,
Networking and Break-out Sessions

1:15 PM – Janice Siegford, Ph.D., Michigan
State University

Using Behavioral Phenotypes to Improve Genetic Selection in Pigs

2:00 PM – Chris Wolf, Ph.D., Michigan State University

Public and Farmer Perceptions of Cattle Welfare in the United States: Implications for Demand and Policy

2:45 PM – Break

3:00 PM – Yvonne Thaxton, Ph.D., University of Arkansas

Stand up for Animal Welfare: Talking to the Public

3:45 PM – Andrew Luescher, DVM, Ph.D., DACVB,
Purdue University, Emeritus Professor

Man and Dog, a tenuous covenant: psychological suffering of dogs in a human environment

4:45 PM – Final Remarks