

Application for Purdue Center for Animal Welfare Science (CAWS) Membership

CAWS membership responsibilities:

- Actively engage in, help to shape, and contribute to CAWS efforts (e.g., symposia, white papers, grant writing/funding)
- Provide information to CAWS related to your projects & publications
- Acknowledge CAWS support in publications

Name of applicant:

Department/College:

Email:

Lab webpage:

Academic Focus:

Engagement (Extension/Outreach/Clinical or other service)

Research

Teaching

Area(s) of expertise:

Select one or more areas of focus of CAWS with which you wish to affiliate:

Agricultural animal well-being

Other animal well-being (e.g., lab, companion, wildlife animal)

Public interest/social/ethical/economic issues relative to animal welfare

Interface between human-animal bond and animal welfare

How do you anticipate contributing to CAWS?

How do you anticipate Center membership will benefit you?

Please attach the following to your application:

1. Short bio/biosketch (for inclusion on CAWS website)
2. Current headshot (for inclusion on CAWS website)

Return the completed form to CAWS@purdue.edu.