

ONE WELFARE

What has COVID-19 taught us about balancing human and animal interests?

REGISTRATION SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION DUE DATE: MAY 15, 2021

An important outcome for this symposium is to help grow the field of outstanding animal welfare scientists while increasing diversity, equity and inclusion within animal welfare research. All are invited to apply for scholarships. Priority will be given to those applicants who clearly articulate how their participation will contribute to this outcome.

Personal Information

Full Name (as listed on Federal ID/driver's license):

First

M.I.

Last

Email: _____

Alternative Email: _____

Address:

Street Address

Apartment/Unit #

City

State

ZIP Code

Phone: _____

Gender	Male <input type="checkbox"/>	Female <input type="checkbox"/>	Other <input type="checkbox"/>
Prefer not to say	<input type="checkbox"/>

Are you Hispanic/Latino? Yes ☐ No ☐ If you selected NO, please indicate your race below:

African (Black) American ☐ American Indian/Alaskan Native ☐ Asian American ☐ Native Hawaiian/
Other Pacific Islander ☐

White (non-Hispanic) ☐ Other (Please Specify): _____

Are you a first generation college student? Yes ☐ No ☐

Have you participated in research or activities related to animal welfare/agriculture/animal health? Yes ☐ No ☐

Description of Activity _____

Academic Information – For Students Only

(Post-docs/Professionals – Go to Personal Statement)

College or University currently enrolled: _____

Major/Minor: _____ Department: _____

Anticipated Graduation Date: _____
Month Year

Personal Statement –To be completed by Students and Postdocs/Professionals

Please submit a statement requesting the scholarship and providing the rationale for the request. Explain your interest in participating in the symposium and how it will contribute to your professional development, particularly in regard to pursuing educational and/or professional opportunities pertaining to animal welfare science. If you have had limited or no access to animal welfare coursework/experiences, please state this and tie it to how this opportunity will help benefit your professional development and contributions to the discipline. This statement should be no longer than 500 words.

SUBMIT COMPLETED APPLICATION TO CAWS@PURDUE.EDU